

QUALITY AND CONTINUOUS IMPROVEMENT POLICY

Frédéric WILMOT, General Manager - October 2020

"Be a yardstick of quality. Some people aren't used to an environment where excellence is expected." - Steve JOBS

Our ambition to develop the company

/ Make Quality Assurance and Continuous Improvement the two pillars of Operational Excellence focused on external and internal customer satisfaction.

The concepts integrated into the HORIZON project reflect this ambition.

Our Objectives

Meet the requirements and expectations of

- // Our clients: punctuality, quality, proactivity, project support.
- // Our employees: social dialogue and communication, working conditions, quality of working life, skills development.
- // Our shareholder: profitability and sustainability.
- // Our suppliers: long-term relationships, partnerships, mutually beneficial relationship.

And strengthen

- // Visual management and active participation of employee closest to his/her work station.
- // Everyone's involvement and participation in improving the company's performance.
- // Long-term management involvement.
- // Creativity while leaving room for adapted standardization.

Our actions

- / Ensure everyone's adherence to the values, vision and strategy of our company.
- / Make everyone comply with their commitments: Self-monitoring, management and monitoring of actions
- / Identify and manage risks and opportunities.
- / Aline our requirements and expectations with our suppliers.
- / Promote continuous improvement approach and innovation.
- / Measure and analyze our performance to define our progress.
- / Adapt continuously the training of our employees.

Our engagement

In order to strengthen the two pillars of our policy, I commit to:

- / Encourage, guide and support each manager so that he/she creates favorable conditions for the active contribution of each employee to quality assurance and continuous improvement procedures.
- / Establish resources and means needed.
- / Define objectives and manage them in a multiannual program.
- / Evaluate the effectiveness of our processes and the efficiency of our MCH and take responsibility for results.
- / Communicate this policy internally, and make it available to our relevant stakeholders.
